PROUDLY ABERDONIAN. BUILT FOR THE WORLD.

NAME	Scott Anderson
BASED	Aberdeen, Scotland
FORMAT	Open Format
RADIO	1XTRA · KISS · Shade 45
AVAILABLE	Worldwide

Scott Anderson has been DJing as home alone for over ten years. He's been on BBC 1XTRA, KISS FM and Shade 45, opened for Drake, The Weeknd and Lily Allen, and played for Adidas, Aberdeen FC, Johnnie Walker and Hugo Boss. Ask the people who keep rebooking him, though, and they'll talk about the night itself rather than the CV.

He's from Aberdeen and proud of it. The plan was always to keep playing at home, in the bars and clubs on Belmont Street, while taking the music further afield. Both still happen most months.

His sets go wide. LCD Soundsystem into Diana Ross into Childish Gambino, in the same set, because that's honestly how he listens to music at home. Nobody's trying to be clever about it.

Taking Aberdeen to the World started as a bit of a motto and stuck. He takes the music as seriously on a Tuesday in Aberdeen as he would anywhere else.

> "I never want to go the obvious route; if I can change direction and make people stop in their tracks — while still enjoying their night — then I've done my job properly."

MUSIC IS THE MAIN EVENT. PUT ON LCD SOUNDSYSTEM, THEN DIANA ROSS, THEN CHILDISH GAMBINO, ALL IN ONE SET, AND WHEN IT'S DONE RIGHT THE ROOM GOES WITH YOU EVERY TIME. A PLAYLIST CAN'T DO THAT.

OPEN FORMAT DONE RIGHT.

ALL OF THESE HAVE ENDED UP IN A HOME ALONE SET AT SOME POINT
